A Demand for the Restoration of the Monarchy Favored.

About forty delegates of the Hawaiian Patriotic League met in convention yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Arion hall. Rev. E. S. Timoteo opened the meeting with prayer. Among the visitors present were noticed John A. Cummins, Captain John Ross, J. S. Emerson, Hon. A. Marques and Rev. S. Kaili.

Hon. Joseph Nawahi was in the chair. He requested that representatives of the press, who were present by courtesy of the league, would give a straight-forward account of the proceedings of the convention. The following delegates were present:

President Nawahi said that Gcd had assembled together in this place the delegates from the various islands to show their undying love for their country. The women also have taken up the cause with the same spirit as the men. He was sure that they had put aside all petty differences. Although a few are in favor of annexation, yet God is merciful enough to bring such erring ones into the fold again. We have no other home but thawaii. We have no right to barter away the country which we are building up for our children. It was God's bountiful mercy the content of the kindly remarks that fell from Mr. Cummins' lips. They named their vast possession "National City;" and as the land which they had bought for one dollar an acre bounded up to one thousand, and even two and three thousand dollars an acre, you can see that they had ample means to forward their favorite liberal social plans. And yet they were not prodigal. Many people say they are not, and never were, very liberal. But be that as it may, they have builded bravely and most gloriously.
